Conco Services Corporation Promotes Dan Russo to Newly Created Position of Principal Project Manager

Verona, PA – May 1, 2017 – Conco Services Corporation, the world’s leading provider of condenser and heat exchanger services to the power generation and industrial process industries, is pleased to announce the recent promotion of Dan Russo to Principal Project Manager.

Russo, who has been with the company for over twenty years, is now responsible for the auditing of project manager jobs to verify that all processes and safety standards are met. Russo will train and mentor existing as well as newly promoted or hired project managers at Conco Services Corporation. He will also visit and inspect all equipment, trailers and operations at the Gonzales, LA, Deer Park, TX, and Corona, CA, offices to ensure consistent standards and procedures are met. Finally, Russo will support project managers and sales staff on high profile and large project bidding, preparation and execution.

“It is a pleasure to be able to acknowledge all of Dan’s commitment, hard work and loyalty to Conco Services Corporation by promoting him to this new position with such very important responsibilities,” says Conco Services Corporation CEO Edward Saxon.

Before joining Conco in 1995, Russo spent three years in the United States Army and then worked for a plumbing company.
